Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Provide expert guidance and assistance to enable the National Intelligence Managers (NIMs) to fulfill their ICD 900 responsibilities in IPPBE processes.
- Lead the examination and analysis of budget requests and execution data to ensure accuracy and consistency with National and Intelligence Community (IC) strategic priorities, compliance with guidance, regulations, laws, and usage of sound budgeting and financial management practices.
- Interface and collaborate with the NIMS, IC component Resource Managers, internal and external organization staffs to ensure program and budget recommendations are fully coordinated and satisfy priority requirements.
- Develop specific objectives and devise new methods, techniques, and criteria pertaining to such matters as identifying trends and patterns, acquiring information and analyzing data, developing solutions and presenting findings, and examining requirements for which there are no precedents.
- Initiate, develop, and conduct in-depth analysis of IC budget trends and issues. Apply critical thinking to devise and evaluate alternative strategies and innovative solutions for key program and budget issues throughout the budget process.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

- Continually modify long range plans in accordance with changes in Congressional and Presidential program goals; engage in the development of financial management programs, practices, processes, and activities by applying expert knowledge of strategic planning principles that incorporate the vision, mission, and strategic objectives of IC organizations.
- Lead, plan, and author IC resource strategies, analytical issue papers, strategic evaluations, background papers, talking points, resource issue papers, and/or other analytic products applying extensive subject matter knowledge to support the IC senior leadership in making informed programmatic decisions.
- Provide independent analyses of IC capabilities and programs, presenting the DNI with alternative courses of action, identifying cost and mission impacts and clarifying the advantages and disadvantages of each alternative.

Mandatory Requirements

- Expert knowledge of the Intelligence planning, programming, budgeting and evaluation (IPPBE) processes, and how to influence them.
- Expert knowledge of the NIP budget, associated tools and data sets, and other empirical data available within ODNI and the IC.
- Exceptional analytic skills, including the ability to translate resource information into quantifiable mission impacts and provide advice to senior officials on complex, sensitive, and/or controversial substantive or programmatic topics.
- Superior ability to manage competing priorities while maintaining a high level of attention to detail; superior ability to work effectively with senior leaders in a highly active, fast-paced, and demanding organization.
- Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including superior ability to develop working relationships and networks with internal and external managers and staff.
- Superior ability to understand substantive and administrative issues, exert influence to senior leadership, communicate cogently and effectively with people at all levels (both internal and external), brief management on reviews and findings, and organize and edit written reports of varying length and complexity.

Desired Requirements

- Extensive experience working with multiple IC agencies and other Government organizations.
